

Press Release

27 May 2015

Keyrus receives the 'Partner Excellence Award' from SAP for the 1st quarter of 2015

A longstanding worldwide partner of SAP and a recognized specialist in its analytical solutions, Keyrus has today won the 'SAP Partner Excellence' award, notably in view of its first-rate expertise in the editor's omnichannel commerce solutions (hybris).

Levallois, 27 May 2015: An international player in Data Intelligence (Business Intelligence, Big Data Analytics), Digital and Consulting on the Management and Transformation of enterprises, Keyrus announces that it is the winner, for the first quarter of the year, of the 'SAP Partner Excellence Award' for the EMEA zone.

Bestowed by a jury of members of SAP's European management, this award honors the editor's best partner of the quarter, and is attributed according to multiple performance criteria linked to the adoption, promotion and implementation of SAP innovations, principally in support of clients' digital transformation.

This new distinction as leader amongst SAP's partners confirms the Keyrus Group's position as a strategic partner of SAP. It is not only the culmination of a strong and lasting relationship, but also the fruit of a strategy and of a particularly apposite and active partnership dynamic centred around a range of offerings and services which meet companies' new challenges in both a specific and innovative way.

A specialist in Digital Commerce, Keyrus has, for several years now, positioned itself as one of the foremost partners of SAP around the hybris omnichannel commerce solution to help enterprises target, and make contact with, their customers more effectively and offer them a digital experience which is personalized, consistent and rich, on all channels and at all times.

A leading expert in Business Intelligence, Keyrus also distributes the entirety of SAP's new analytical solutions (BI, Predictive Analysis, analytical Applications, Big Data...) in which the Group offers award-winning know-how unique by international standards.

Henri van der Vaeren, Managing Director, France and BeLux at SAP, comments: "This distinction is the recognition of consistent performance which rewards our best partners. Keyrus demonstrates an excellent adoption of SAP innovations and great success in the promotion and implementation of these innovations with our customers. Its strategy and its commitment with regard to its clients are of the highest level and perfectly in line with our practices and recommendations."

"Being both a longstanding and strategic partner of SAP (Gold partner), we consider that this award is once again the best testimony of a partnership showing sustained success", declares Hervé Uzan, Executive Vice President, France & Southern Europe at Keyrus. "The excellence of the SAP solutions enables us to fulfil one of our primary missions which is to address our clients' new challenges in a pragmatic and innovative way in order to thereby offer them swift and tangible performance gains as well as effective assistance with their development/transformation in this age of Data and Digital."
